107.00 ORDER OF SUCCESSION AND ON-CALL COMMAND

107.01 Order of Succession:

- Unless otherwise provided by Personnel Order, the hierarchal order of succession for the Greeley Police Department is:
 - The Chief of Police;
 - The Operations Deputy Chief of Police;
 - The Support Services Deputy Chief of Police
 - The Investigations Commander.
- Should the Chief of Police become incapacitated through illness, death or for any other reason, the first Deputy Chief of Police in the order of succession will assume command of the Department. Likewise, should the Acting Chief of Police become incapacitated, or be absent from the City, the next member of Command Staff listed in the order of succession will assume command of the Department.
- When an Acting Chief of Police has not been designated, the Chief of Police shall notify the Watch Commander on duty of his pending absence, prior to leaving the City of Greeley. The Watch Commander, in turn, shall notify the first available Deputy Chief of Police, following the previously noted order of succession. If no designated Deputy Chief of Police can be reached, the Watch Commander will assume the duties of Acting Chief of Police until relieved by a Deputy Chief or the Chief of Police. If a designated Deputy Chief is notified of the absence of the Chief of Police, that Deputy Chief will assume the responsibilities and duties of Acting Chief of Police, until relieved by the Chief of Police or City Manager.

107.02 The On-Call Command: The On-Call Command will be the designated Commander or Deputy Chief, concerning matters that arise outside of normal hours of Command Staff coverage. Sergeants will notify the On-Call Command who in turn will:

- Alert the Chief of Police and/or Deputy Chief on major incidents during the On-Call Command's designated duty week; and
- When needed, respond to major events and assume command until relieved by a higher-ranked member of Command Staff or designee.
