

APPLICATION INSTRUCTIONS

PRIVATE SECURITY GUARD (INDIVIDUAL) LICENSE

Issuance of a Security Guard License is governed by the Greeley Municipal Code, which states, in part:

- 6.12.010 - Definitions.

(a) Breach of the peace means a violation of public tranquility and order. Crimes which are considered crimes of breach of the peace shall be determined by the Chief of Police and set forth in a rule, regulation or order which shall be available to the public.

(b) Moral turpitude means conduct that is considered contrary to community standards of justice, honesty and good morals. Crimes which are considered moral turpitude shall be determined by the Chief of Police and set forth in a rule, regulation or order; which shall be available to the public.

(c) Private security services means a person, firm or corporation, including its employees and agents, engaged in the business of providing protection to third persons, firms or corporations, and/or their property and preserving the peace and conduct of any business in the City, but does not mean persons who are employed to provide unarmed internal security for their employer's business.

(1) This definition includes, by way of example only and without limitation, all armed private security personnel; guard and patrol services and personnel for hire, investigative services and personnel for hire, vehicle escort services, and alarm services and personnel for hire.

(2) This definition does not include, by way of example only and without limitation, unarmed ATM service personnel, or any armored car or armored courier service which is regulated by the Federal Armored Car Industry Reciprocity Act of 1993, as amended.

(Ord. 36, 2016, §§1, 2(Exh. A), 12-20-2016)

- 6.12.020 - Licenses required for private security service, security guard.

(a) It is unlawful for any person, firm or corporation to engage in the business of a private security service or to represent to any person or the public that the person, firm or corporation is a private security service without having first procured a license to operate as a security guard company as provided in this Chapter.

(b) It is unlawful for any person, or employee or agent of a person, firm, or corporation, to engage in employment as a security guard or an armed security guard, or to represent himself or herself to any person or the public that the person is a private security guard or armed private security guard without having first procured a license as provided in this Chapter. No person who is a peace officer having a valid certification shall be required to obtain a license pursuant to this Chapter to engage in off duty employment as a private security service within the jurisdiction of the governmental entity employing him or her as a peace officer.

(c) The Chief of Police may, upon written application, grant an exception to the license requirement for security guards or armed security guards if, in the judgment of the Chief of Police, the exception is reasonable. No exemption granted by the Chief of Police shall be for the duration of more than fourteen (14) calendar days.

(d) It shall be unlawful for any private security service to employ any agent or employee unless the person to be employed has obtained a license as herein provided, or the Chief of Police has granted an exception to the license requirement. This requirement is not intended to include employees whose job responsibilities are exclusively administrative and not functional; this includes, by way of example only without limitation, secretarial positions.

(e) It shall be unlawful for any person to accept employment as a private security service employee or agent operating within the City, without obtaining a license as herein provided or having been granted an exception by the Chief of Police. This requirement is not intended to include employees whose job responsibilities are exclusively administrative and not functional; this includes, by way of example only without limitation, secretarial positions.
