408.00 CORRUPTION PREVENTION

408.01 Corruption: Acts involving the misuse of authority by a police officer in a manner designed to produce personal gain for himself or others.

408.02 Policy:

It is the policy of the Greeley Police Department to establish measures designed to prevent corruption and to investigate and prosecute corruption to the full extent of the law and administrative authority, when reported or identified.

Organizational philosophy, values, and goals: The Greeley Police Department will maintain and periodically review and revise, if necessary, a statement of philosophy and values that explicitly states the goals, values, and general philosophic approach to policing by this department. This statement will be entitled "Greeley Police Department Strategic Plan" and will include the department's mission statement. Supervisors will periodically review this plan with their employees.

Code of Ethics: The Greeley Police Department will maintain and periodically review and revise, as necessary, a Code of Ethics. This code will be incorporated into General Order Chapter 400. Each employee has constant access to this directive, which is stored digitally on the department's computer system. Each employee is required to read and understand it.

Code of Conduct: The Code of Conduct is incorporated into General Order 400. New employees will receive a copy of and be instructed in its contents. The Code of Conduct will be reviewed periodically for relevance, timeliness, adequacy and completeness. This review will be conducted and coordinated by the Professional Standards Unit with a review committee appointed by the Chief of Police.
