On February 12th around 1120 hours Officers and Detectives with the Greeley Police Department along with Homeland Security Agents, arrested a suspect who was the subject of a proactive case the Greeley Police had been working for several weeks. The suspect, Jesus Arroyo-Castillo was talking with an undercover detective, who was posing as a 14 year old female. Arroyo-Castillo, who resides in Longmont wanted to have a sexual relationship with the suspected 14 year old and her 13 year old friend. Arroyo-Castillo traveled to Greeley to meet the girls at the Greeley Mall, where he was intercepted by officers. Arroyo-Castillo was charged with Enticement of Child, Attempt Internet Luring, 2 Counts of Attempted Sex Assault on a Child and 2 counts of Contributing to Delinquency of a Minor.

This case is a great example of the proactive police work our officers and detective's do, to keep Greeley safe. Greeley Police Department is committed to pursuing those who prey and victimize children and engage in human trafficking- child sex assault cases.
